

YOUR BEAUTY PORTRAIT: What You Need to Know

We will consult well ahead of time until we are all clear on what you wish. In the meantime, below you will find some general guidelines.

General:

You want to show yourself at you most appealing, yet in an honest and sincere way at the same time. The good news is that the “real” you is also the most attractive you.

Outfits:

- For suggestions on selecting outfits that will look the best in photos, please see the separate preparation portrait guides for women and men on our site if you do not have them already.
- Bring the clothes you would wear to an event of significance. Imagine yourself on the red carpet, for instance, or on the most important date of your life.
- Be ready to experiment and have fun. Bring a few things that helps you connect to who you are when you are most happy, confident, and comfortable. This is a special kind of shoot, however, so also be open to what you really wish and, perhaps, have never tried.
- If are not completely happy with your wardrobe options, consider borrowing from a friend or even renting. Or, maybe it's time to shop.
- Be ready to experiment and have a little fun. Bring something you enjoy, something that helps you connect to who you are when you are most happy and comfortable.
- Bring several outfits, at least three. More is better.
- We will be able to do several different versions and styles. You can change outfits between sessions
- Allow yourself plenty of time. Best not to schedule anything immediately after your shoot, so you can stay relaxed. Approach this like a well deserved and long overdue day at a spa. Make to most of it.

Makeup and Accessories:

Still not sure how to go about this? Do not worry. Again, whatever the shoot, we always consult with our clients first by phone, email, or in person. We will exchange ideas and visions for as long as it takes until we are all happy that we have a way forward.

Location and Parking:

Our studio is in Ballard is just a few blocks from the old one in a recently renovated multi-story brick building. We are now at 3060 NW Market St, Seattle, WA 98107 just on the corner of 32nd. Our ground-floor Market Street entrance is on the north side of the street: look for "3060" above the door.

Parking:

There is two hour free parking on the street, but only between 11:30 AM and 3 PM. Don't even think about parking there at other times during the day as the parking police are relentless. However, you can often find a space just around the corner on 32nd, and we have usually been able to find a space just one block up on 56th. If you are bringing a lot of clothes, let us know so we can assist you in carrying them.
